The week Donald Trump was elected president - and as thoughtful people around the world looked on in disbelief - over seventy friends, colleagues and artists presented Simone Tippet with an extraordinary gift: a trip to San Francisco to immerse herself in the fabulous printmaking community and history that exists there.

In the week following the Trump election, Simone wanted to reach out to like-minded souls in San Francisco; to show them we cared about how their world was changing. And so the idea for these folios was born - a gift of prints from Adelaide to San Francisco.

There are four themed folios, each named to support the interests and concerns of Adelaide printmakers, and to echo some of the concerns of Californian printmakers: Nature/Nurture; Skin Deep; Message in a Bottle; and The Political Folio.

The folio featured in this exhibition is the Nature/Nurture Folio. We hope you enjoy it.
