A one-day workshop with Simone Tippett of Union St Printmakers. Learn about the differences between relief and intaglio prints. Spend the morning preparing, carving and relief printing a lino block in a press and by hand. Then, following a light café lunch, spend the afternoon preparing, inscribing and printing an intaglio drypoint plate in several different presses.

In addition to learning the basics of relief and intaglio processes, throughout the day we'll also look at original prints made with a variety of different techniques.
