

Casual Printmaking Classes

Union St Printmakers @ Stepney SA (address supplied when classes are booked)

Most Saturdays, 10am-1pm, intaglio processes:

Learn how to plan, inscribe and print a drypoint in a press and with a die-cutter. Includes stencil rolls, chine colle and hand colouring for more experienced folk, as well as learning monoprinting and collagraphs, and printing pre-etched plates. Lino also possible, pending bookings.

Most Saturdays, 1.30pm-4.30pm, lino/relief processes:

Learn how to prepare, carve and relief print a lino block in a press and by hand, onto paper and fabric. Includes lino etch, multiple plate, reduction and jigsaw prints for more experienced folk, as well as learning woodcuts and wood engraving. Drypoint etching also possible, pending bookings.

Pending bookings, it may also be possible to learn cyanotypes, gelli printing, repeat pattern stamping, stencilling, suminagashi (Japanese marbling) and Japanese stab binding. Mokuhanga (Japanese woodcut) also possible if you have previously done a mokuhanga workshop.
